We believe in God, but unless we put God first in our lives, nothing can satisfy us. We will never find what we are looking for as long as something other than God occupies first place in our lives.

Does God really come first in my life? Or do I have other priorities—relationships, work, possessions, self-interest? How would my life be different if God really came first?

Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

SIDE BY SIDE

“Come to me, all you who labor” (Matthew 11:28). When we are overburdened, weary, confused, or sick, Jesus’ invitation sounds like music to our ears. Other people seem to be so much better at coping than we are, and we wonder what their secret is. The promise of rest in Jesus seems very sweet, except for a small complication. Jesus says, “Take my yoke upon you” (Matthew 11:29). How does this give rest to our souls? In another Gospel narrative, Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for laying burdensome religious regulations on people’s backs and not lifting a finger to help them carry the load. Jesus does not weigh his disciples down with teaching that they cannot follow. Jesus invites them to shoulder his yoke and learn from him, for he is gentle and humble of heart. For generations farmers have yoked a young and inexperienced plough animal alongside one that is well trained. The more experienced animal trains the other by example; the novice gradually learns how to work until it can manage alone. An older animal near the end of its working life may likewise be yoked to one in its prime, so that the strain of the hardest work is taken by the stronger partner. So too with us. Jesus invites us to take on his yoke so he can teach us, not by laying burdens upon us, but by walking alongside us and helping us to do things his way. He promised never to leave us to “pull” alone. When it all gets too much or we lose our way, he will be there alongside us again—gentle, humble, but infinitely powerful and wise. At times when we are strong we in turn can yoke ourselves to someone who needs that extra pull to get to firmer ground. Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Reflexión de las lecturas:

COMPAÑERO DE CAMINO

“Vengan a mí, los que van cansados, llevando pesadas cargas y yo los aliviaré” (Mateo 11:28). Cuando nos sentimos sobrecargados, cansados, confusos o enfermos la invitación de Jesús nos suena como hermosa melodía. Otras personas parecen sobrellevar mejor las cosas que nosotros y nos preguntamos cuál es su secreto. La promesa de encontrar descanso en Jesús suena muy dulce, excepto por una pequeña complicación. Jesús dice también: “Carguen con mi yugo” (Mateo 11:29). ¿Cómo puede esto darle descanso a nuestro espíritu? En otro pasaje del Evangelio Jesús reprende a los fariseos por ponerle muchas cargas de reglamentos religiosos a la gente y no hacer nada para ayudarlas con tal peso. Jesús no agobia a sus discípulos con enseñanzas que no pueden cumplir, sino que los invita a tomar su yugo y aprender de él, que es manso y humilde de corazón. Por muchas generaciones los agricultores han acostumbrado poner en su yunta un animal joven y sin experiencia en el arado junto a otro bien entrenado. Este último entrena al otro con su ejemplo y el animal novicio va poco a poco aprendiendo hasta que puede hacerlo por sí solo. Igualmente pueden poner a un animal ya al final de su vida laboral junto a uno que se encuentra en plena flor de su tiempo, para que el esfuerzo mayor caiga sobre el compañero más fuerte. Así sucede con nosotros. Jesús nos invita a tomar su yugo a fin de que él nos pueda enseñar, no poniéndonos más peso, sino caminando a nuestro lado y ayudándonos a hacer las cosas según su ejemplo. Él nos promete que nunca nos dejará para “tirar” solos de la yunta. Cuando el todo se convierta en demasiado o cuando perdamos el camino, él estará ahí junto a nosotros, con su mansedumbre y humildad, pero también con su infinito poder y su sabiduría. Y en esos momentos en que nos sentimos más fuertes podemos ponernos en yunta con alguien que necesita un empujoncito para alcanzar una tierra más firme. Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. ## Catholic Teaching Ask Esther:

Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer is the heart of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. In this prayer, the celebrant acts in the person of Christ as head of his body, the Church. He gathers not only the bread and the wine, but the substance of our lives and joins them to Christ's perfect sacrifice, offering them to the Father.

The introductory dialogue, establishes that this prayer is the prayer of the baptized and ordained, is offered in the presence of God, and has thanksgiving as its central focus. Following this dialogue, the celebrant begins the Preface.

The Eucharistic Prayers make clear that these prayers are offered, not to Christ, but to the Father. It is worship offered to the Father by Christ as it was at the moment of his passion, death and resurrection, but now it is offered through the priest acting in the person of Christ, and it is offered as well by all of the baptized, who are part of Christ's Body, the Church. This is the action of Christ's Body, the Church at Mass.

The priest offers the Eucharistic Prayer in the first person plural, for example, "Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you..." This "we" signifies that all the baptized present at the Eucharistic celebration make the sacrificial offering in union with Christ, and pray the Eucharistic Prayer in union with him. And what is most important, we do not offer Christ alone; we are called to offer ourselves, our lives, our individual efforts to grow more like Christ and our efforts as a community of believers to spread God's Word and to serve God's people, to the Father in union with Christ through the hands of the priest. Most wonderful of all, although our offering is in itself imperfect, joined with the offering of Christ it becomes perfect praise and thanksgiving to the Father.

Visit our website today to sign up for Online Giving and begin making your contribution.

It's easy!!!! www.resurrectionchurch.org

Each month more and more people are joining online giving. Call or stop by the Parish Office if you have any questions.

This convenient new system does not require you to contact your bank to sign up or to make changes. You can use any of your checking or savings accounts and the funds will be automatically transferred to our parish bank account.

You have complete control of what fund you want to give to and how much, and the dates you want the money taken out.

Online Giving is a web-based application that allows you to start, stop and change your contributions at any time. Please notice that our offering envelopes now have a check box which indicates "I've given online," which you can use to present during offertory at Mass.

It is our hope that all Parishioners contribute to the building of the permanent Church, no matter how big or small the gift is. Every gift helps!

Pick up a pledge card at the entrance of the Church or in the Parish Office.

Thank you to all who have, and continue, to contribute to the building of the new Church.

Please continue to pray for the success of the building of the new Church.

If you would like to make a one time Non-Pledge Donation scan the bar code with your smart phone.

New Church Interior

Have you made a pledge?

- If we pay our construction bills with cash on hand, we can reduce our future debt!
- Please consider one or more of the following options: starting a pledge, giving a onetime cash donation, accelerating payments on your existing pledge, increasing your existing pledge, or
- selecting a memorial gift

Every size gift helps!

The Corpus of Jesus that will hang in the Sanctuary is almost complete

What is the New Church Interior offering for?

This offering helps to pay for interior items in the New Church such as: materials for the Guadalupe Shrine, quality Pews (pews for the choir area and blessed sacrament chapel of the New Church) , materials (tiles) for the Baptismal Font, the Reredos and other items we do not currently have a memorial gift for.

Stop by the Parish Office or the information table on Sunday for a booklet of memorial gifts still available
