We believe in God, but unless we put God first in our lives, nothing can satisfy us. We will never find what we are looking for as long as something other than God occupies first place in our lives.

Does God really come first in my life? Or do I have other priorities—relationships, work, possessions, self-interest? How would my life be different if God really came first?

Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

FRUIT OF THE WORD

The seed is the word of God. The agricultural metaphors in all of today’s readings give richness to the message that the word of God, cultivated in our hearts, bears much fruit in our lives. Creation itself awaits the redemption of all, even as our bodies await the resurrection. Just as we will rejoice in the fulfillment of God’s word, so will all of creation sing for joy in the Reign of God. The word of God is effective and holy; it brings about exactly what it says. It is not futile or empty, but rich in meaning for those who hear and are healed. Those who hear the word of God and keep it will, with all creation, bear much fruit and sing for joy.

God will accomplish whatever God sends it forth to do. His Word is given to us as a gift to be nurtured, shared and made to “bear fruit.” The question is whether or not we are exercising good stewardship over God’s Word.

Have we been “fruitful” with God’s Word?

Have we unleashed God’s Word?

Do we share God’s Word or do we leave that task to others?

ICSC Newsletter July 2017

In today’s reading from the prophet Isaiah, there is a guarantee that the unleashing of God’s Word will bear much fruitfulness in the world. The Word of Reino de Dios. La Palabra de Dios es eficaz y santa, produce exactamente lo que dice. No es inútil ni vacía, sino rica en significado para quienes la escuchan y son sanados. Quienes escuchan la palabra de Dios y la guardan, con toda la creación, darán mucho fruto y cantarán de gozo.

En la lectura de hoy del profeta Isaías, hay una certeza de que la Palabra de Dios esparcida dará fruto abundante en el mundo. La Palabra de Dios completará todo aquello para lo que Dios la ha enviado. Su Palabra nos es dada como un don para ser cultivado, compartido y hecho para “producir fruto.” La pregunta es si estamos ejercitando, o no, una buena corresponsabilidad de la palabra de Dios.

¿Hemos sido “productivos” con la Palabra de Dios?

¿Hemos esparcido la palabra de Dios?

¿Compartimos nosotros la Palabra de Dios, o dejamos esta tarea a otros?

ICSC Newsletter July 2017

Reflexión de las lectura:

FRUTO DE LA PALABRA

La semilla es la Palabra de Dios. Las metáforas de la agricultura en todas las lecturas de hoy brindan riqueza al mensaje de que la palabra de Dios, cultivada en nuestro corazón, produce mucho fruto en nuestra vida. La creación misma espera la redención de todos, hasta nuestro cuerpo aguarda la resurrección. Así como nos regocijamos por el cumplimiento de la Palabra de Dios, así la creación toda cantará de gozo en el

Catholic Teaching Ask Esther:

How did our Liturgy (Mass) come to be in Latin?

Two centuries ago, Archbishop John Carroll worried that Americans would not appreciate the linguistic veil over our worship, and asked that the liturgy in the new United States be in English, not Latin. How did our liturgy come to be in Latin in the first place? In the first century, the dominant language in the regions where the church first flourished was Greek. Today in much of the world, almost everyone speaks at least a bit of English. Recently, the European Union even considered making English its official language, a curious proposal since only two English-speaking countries are members.

Just as English is a unifying language today, it was hard to function in the ancient world without a smattering of Greek. Even the word "Eucharist" comes from the Greek for "thanksgiving." For a long time, Greek was the language of worship, even in Rome. Slowly, society in the west shifted to a bias for Latin and against Greek. Latin first appeared in public prayer at the end of the second century, in the colonial outposts of North Africa. Soon, Latin became the language of culture, and so as fixed prayer forms were written, they were transmitted in Latin. From Rome and Africa, over the next four centuries, the new liturgical language of Latin spread north to Gaul and Britain.

Visit our website today to sign up for Online Giving and begin making your contribution.

It's easy!!!! www.resurrectionchurch.org

Each month more and more people are joining online giving. Call or stop by the Parish Office if you have any questions.

This convenient new system does not require you to contact your bank to sign up or to make changes. You can use any of your checking or savings accounts and the funds will be automatically transferred to our parish bank account.

You have complete control of what fund you want to give to and how much, and the dates you want the money taken out.

Online Giving is a web-based application that allows you to start, stop and change your contributions at any time. Please notice that our offering envelopes now have a check box which indicates "I've given online," which you can use to present during offertory at Mass.

It is our hope that all Parishioners contribute to the building of the permanent Church, no matter how big or small the gift is. Every gift helps!

Pick up a pledge card at the entrance of the Church or in the Parish Office.

Thank you to all who have, and continue, to contribute to the building of the new Church.

Please continue to pray for the success of the building of the new Church.

If you would like to make a one time Non-Pledge Donation scan the bar code with your smart phone.

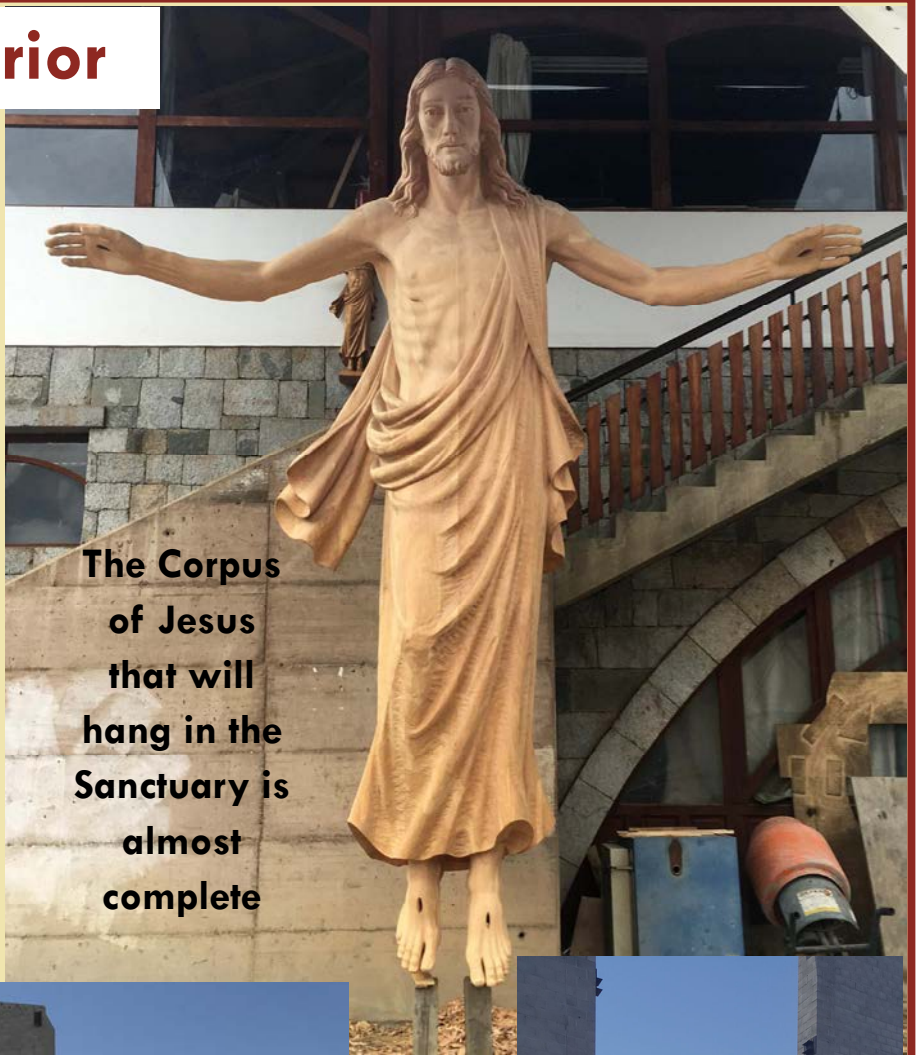

New Church Interior

Have you made a pledge?

- If we pay our construction bills with cash on hand, we can reduce our future debt!
- Please consider one or more of the following options: starting a pledge, giving a onetime cash donation, accelerating payments on your existing pledge, increasing your existing pledge, or
- selecting a memorial gift

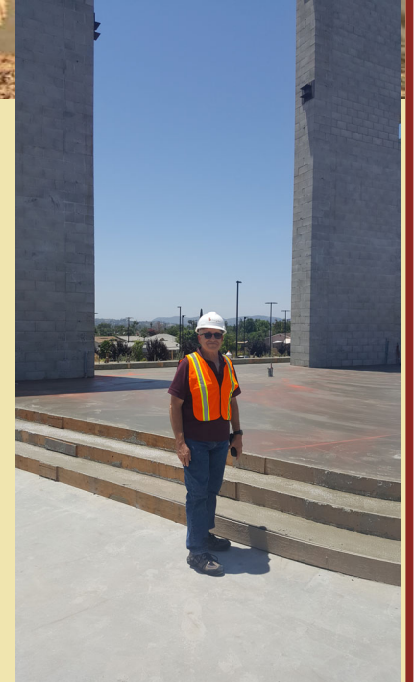

Every size gift helps!
