Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection :

In today’s Gospel Reading from St. Matthew, a lawyer among the Pharisees again tries to entrap Jesus by asking Him the question, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest.” Jesus’ response appears multiple times in Holy Scripture, as He says, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

The Lord then adds another that He cites as almost equally important, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Much has been written and conjectured about both of these, and often the focus is on who our neighbor is. However, there is another element of the second Great Commandment that is worthy of note, and that is loving the neighbor that it is necessary for us to love ourselves before we can love anyone else. It means, quite simply, that most of us are concerned with our own interests and our own personal situations. Jesus is telling us that just as we often think of ourselves, we need to take care and have concern for the interests of others as well.

In the familiar Prayer of St. Francis known to many Catholics, we sum up what this kind of love to which we are called really is, when we pray, “Lord, grant that I might not so much seek to be loved, as to love.

Taken from the Catholic Steward 10-2017

Reflection:

What do I do to show my love for others?

“as yourself.” Too often people conclude that this means that you have to love yourself first.

Most of us grasp what it means to the love the Lord with all we are, although it is nearly unattainable to accomplish. However, that second Great Commandment does not mean

Mucho se ha escrito y conjeturó acerca de estos dos y, a menudo, la atención se centra en quién es nuestro prójimo. Sin embargo, hay otro elemento del segundo gran mandamiento que es digna de preocupados por nuestros propios intereses y nuestras propias situaciones personales. Jesús nos está diciendo que tan a menudo pensamos de nosotros mismos, y que debemos tener cuidado y preocupación por los intereses de los demás.

Reflexión de la lectura:

Hoy en la lectura del evangelio de San Mateo, un abogado de entre los Fariseos de nuevo intenta atrapar a Jesús haciéndole esta pregunta: “¿Maestro, que mandamiento de la ley es el más grande?” La respuesta de Jesús aparece varias veces en la Sagrada Escritura, como él dice, “Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, y con toda tu mente.” El Señor entonces añade otra que cita como casi igualmente importante, “Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo.”

mención, y eso es amar al prójimo como a ti mismo.” “demasiado a menudo la gente concluye que esto significa que tienes que amar a usted mismo primero.

La mayoría de nosotros comprendemos lo que significa el amor que el Señor con todos nosotros, aunque es casi imposible de lograr. Sin embargo, este segundo gran mandamiento no significa que es necesario que nos amamos a nosotros mismos antes de que podamos amar a nadie. Esto significa, simplemente, que la mayoría de nosotros estamos

En la conocida oración de San Francisco conocida para muchos católicos, podemos resumir lo que esta clase de amor a la que somos llamados es realmente, cuando oramos: “Señor, concédenos que quizás yo no tanto tratar de ser amado, como amar.

Reflexión:

¿Que hago yo para mostrar mi amor por los demás?

Stock Donations

A gift of your securities, including stocks or mutual funds, is an easy way to make a gift. By making a gift of your appreciated securities, you can avoid paying capital gains tax that would otherwise be due if you sold these assets. Contributions are deductible for tax purposes. There are no transaction fees or other costs and the full value of the sold securities benefits the parish, school or other Catholic charity you select.

More importantly, the question you may want to consider is this: Have I been blessed with many gifts and am I inspired by Gospel teaching and my Catholic values, that charitable giving is a profound and joy-inspiring expression of love and gratitude? How can I live out my Catholic values and put them into action for the greater good of the community? Your stock contribution will help you live out your Catholic values and benefit your parish or school at the same time.

For more information on making a gift, please visit our diocesan website at www.sdccatholic.org and click on Giving – Stock Donations at the top of the website. Or, you may contact the Office for Stewardship, Manny Aguilar, at 858-490-8294 or call Merrill Lynch, the Diocese's broker, at 800-844-0720.

The following is a link to our website which includes the instructions related to the process:

It is our hope that all Parishioners contribute to the building of the permanent Church, no matter how big or small the gift is.
Every gift helps!

Pick up a pledge card at the entrance of the Church or in the Parish Office.

Thank you to all who have, and continue, to contribute to the building of the new Church.

Please continue to pray for the success of the building of the new Church.

If you would like to make a one time Non-Pledge donation, scan the bar code with your smart phone.

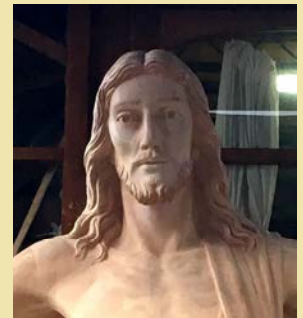

Did You Know?

- Our mortgage will be $7.5 million once the new Church is completed. Through your generosity, we can reduce this mortgage amount now!
- If we pay our construction bills with cash on hand, we can reduce our future debt!
- Please consider one or more of the following options: starting a pledge, giving a one-time cash donation, accelerating payments on your existing pledge, increasing your existing pledge, or selecting a memorial gift
- If every household contributes, we can easily fulfill our mission to build our new Church!

Every gift helps, no matter the size!

New Church Progress

What is the New Church Interior offering for?

This offering helps to pay for interior items in the new Church such as: materials for the Guadalupe Shrine, quality pews (pews for the choir area and blessed sacrament Chapel of the new Church), materials (tiles) for the Baptismal font, the Reredos and other items we do not currently have a memorial gift for.

Stop by the Parish Office or the information table on Sunday for a booklet of memorial gifts still available
