Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection: THREE IN ONE

The number three has great significance in the Bible. In the Old Testament, God is the One who was, who is, and who is to come. The Temple in Jerusalem was built in three parts. Work undertaken for God was to be completed on the third day (Exodus 19:11). The first of the patriarchs, Abraham, recognized God’s presence in the visit of three men to his camp at Mamre (Genesis

Reflexión de las lectura
TRES EN UNO

El número tres tiene un gran significado en la Biblia. En el Antiguo Testamento Dios es el que era, el que es y el que vendrá. El templo de Jerusalén fue construido en tres partes. El trabajo de Dios se completaría el tercer día (Éxodo 19:11). El primero de los patriarcas, Abraham, reconoció la presencia de Dios en los tres hombres que lo visitaron en su hacienda de Mambré (Génesis 18). De igual manera, en el Nuevo Testamento, los evangelios describen la obra salvífica de Jesucristo cumplida por su

18). Likewise, in the New Testament, the Gospels describe the saving work of Jesus Christ as fulfilled by his resurrection on the third day after the Crucifixion, and Saint Paul refers to the three gifts of the Spirit (1 Corinthians 13:13). Although Jesus does command his followers to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19), the term “Trinity” is never used in the scriptures. The Church has never believed that all truth is confined solely to the scriptures; it can also be revealed as the worshiping Church ponders the experience of God at work in the lives of believers. It took three hundred years of such pondering before the Church finally declared the doctrine of the Trinity: the unity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as three persons in one divine Being. For us today, it is important to understand that “person” did not mean independent being. In traditional understanding, a person was always understood, on some level, as being in relationship to others. So the three persons of the Trinity are always understood as three in one: distinct, but one in being. As human beings made in the likeness of our creator we cannot “go it alone” without dire consequences. We are all here to rely on one another, and so find increasing joy in a faithful life.

resurrección el tercer día después de la crucifixión y san Pablo se refiere a las tres virtudes principales (1 Corintios 13:13). Aunque Jesús envía a sus discípulos a bautizar en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo (Mateo 28:19) la palabra “Trinidad” nunca se usa en las Escrituras. La Iglesia nunca ha creído que toda la verdad está confinada únicamente en las Escrituras; sino que también puede ser revelada a medida que la Iglesia orante reflexiona en la experiencia de Dios actuando en la vida de los creyentes. Le llevó a la Iglesia trescientos años de reflexión antes de declarar por fin la doctrina de la Santísima Trinidad: la unidad del Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo como tres personas y un solo Dios. Es importante para nosotros hoy entender que por “persona” no se quiso decir un ser independiente. Comúnmente la persona siempre se entendía, a cierto nivel, como un ser relacionado con otros. Así es que las tres personas de la Trinidad se entienden como tres en uno: tres personas distintas y un solo Dios. Como seres humanos creados a imagen y semejanza de nuestro Creador no podemos “arreglárnosla solos” sin graves consecuencias. Todos estamos aquí para depender los unos de los otros y así encontrar siempre un gozo al vivir con fidelidad.
