Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

A Biblical Stewardship Principle: Everything We Have is a Gift from God

By Rev. Joseph Creedon

The biblical notion of stewardship is rooted in a concept that is difficult for us inhabitants of the 21st century to accept – God is the owner of everything! In Genesis 2:15, we are given the roots of stewardship, "...God took the man and settled him in the garden of Eden to cultivate and take care of it" (The New Jerusalem Bible). God made the earth; God made Adam and Eve. Then he loaned the world to them so that they could care for it. Adam and Eve are the first stewards of creation. Their eating of the forbidden fruit has many meanings but one meaning is certainly that they tried to make themselves gods. They wanted to "own" what was "loaned" to them as gift for safekeeping. We have

All that I am and All that I have is a gift from God

Un Principio Bíblico de la Corresponsabilidad: Todo lo que Tenemos es un Don de Dios

La noción bíblica de corresponsabilidad está arraigada en un concepto que para nosotros, ciudadanos del siglo XXI, es difícil aceptar – ¡Dios es el dueño de todo! En Génesis 2:15, se nos han dado las raíces de la corresponsabilidad, "... Dios tomó al hombre y lo puso en el jardín del Edén para que lo cultivara y cuidara de él." (Nueva Biblia de Jerusalén). Dios hizo la tierra; Dios hizo a Adán y a Eva. Entonces les prestó el mundo para que pudieran cuidar de él. Adán y Eva fueron los primeros corresponsables de la creación. Comer del fruto prohibido tiene muchos significados, pero un significado es, ciertamente, que ellos trataron de ser dioses. Quisieron "poseer" lo que les fue prestado como un don para salvaguardar. Desde entonces, nosotros hemos repetido su been repeating their sin ever since.

The biblical concept of a jubilee year, every fifty years, as explained in Leviticus 25 makes it clear that everything belongs to God and is merely loaned to us as tenants, trustees or stewards. Debts were forgiven and land was returned to its original owner to serve as a reminder that God, not we, owns the land. The Old Testament concept of the tithe was likewise a reminder that God owns everything and it is merely loaned to us.

The concept of stewardship next appears in the earliest New Testament writings. Saint Paul, in his first letter to the Corinthians, offers powerful witness to his vision of stewardship, "People should think of us as Christ's servants, stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God. In such a matter, what is expected of stewards is that each one should be found trustworthy" (1 Cor. 4:1-2). Paul sees all believers as "stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God." I don't know pecado.

El concepto bíblico de un año jubilar, cada cincuenta años, como se explica en Levítico 25 deja claro que todo pertenece a Dios y simplemente nos es prestado como inquilinos, fideicomisarios o corresponsables. Las deudas fueron perdonadas y la tierra devuelta a su dueño original para servir como un recordatorio de que Dios posee la tierra, no nosotros. El concepto del diezmo del Antiguo Testamento era igualmente un recordatorio de que Dios es el dueño de todo y simplemente nos lo ha dado en préstamo.

El concepto siguiente de corresponsabilidad aparece en los primeros escritos del Nuevo Testamento. San Pablo, en su primera carta a los Corintios, ofrece un poderoso testimonio de su visión de la corresponsabilidad, "Los hombres deben considerarnos simplemente como servidores de Cristo, y administradores de los misterios de Dios. Ahora bien, lo que se pide a un administrador es que sea fiel." (1 Corintios 4:1-2). Pablo ve a todos los creyentes como about you but I find that job description for believers to be both awe inspiring and frightening. It is a concept that will require much meditation and even more commitment on our part.

Saint Peter continues the notion of stewardship:

Each one of you has received a special grace, so, like good stewards responsible for all these varied graces of God, put it at the service of others. If anyone is a speaker, let it be as the words of God, if anyone serves, let it be as in strength granted by God; so that in everything God may receive the glory, through Jesus Christ, since to him alone belong all glory and power for ever and ever. Amen" (1 Peter 4:10-11). I hope you are beginning to understand the challenge of stewardship as a spirituality. It is rooted in the Bible and based on the principle that everything we have is a gift from God.

"corresponsables de los misterios de Dios." No sé lo que usted piense, pero yo encuentro esa descripción de puesto de trabajo para los creyentes, asombrosamente inspiradora y al mismo tiempo atemorizadora. Este es un concepto que requerirá mucha meditación y aún más, compromiso de nuestra parte.

San Pedro continúa la noción de corresponsabilidad:

"Pongan al servicio de los demás los dones que han recibido, como buenos administradores de la multiforme gracia de Dios. El que ha recibido el don de la Palabra, que la enseñe como Palabra de Dios. El que ejerce un ministerio, que lo haga como quien recibe de Dios ese poder, para que Dios sea glorificado en todas las cosas, por Jesucristo. ¡A él sea la gloria y el poder, por los siglos de los siglos! Amén." (1 Pedro 4:10-11). Espero que usted empiece a entender el desafío de la corresponsabilidad como una espiritualidad. Se encuentra arraigada en la Biblia y fundamentada en el principio de que todo lo que tenemos es un don de Dios.
