Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

Today's readings offer beautiful illustrations of two of the "Four Pillars of Parish Stewardship" — hospitality and service — and the joy that a life lived for others can bring.

Our second reading, from the letter of St. James, teaches that all are equally worthy of our hospitality. We must welcome and serve everyone who walks through our church's doors, extending warmth and a dignified greeting to all. The person who wanders in late to Mass, who is not dressed to our personal standards, may be just the person who is most in need of Christ's love. Sometimes we can offer that love simply with a smile and offer to come and sit next to us in "our" pew.

The Gospel reading from Mark demonstrates the connection between hospitality and service. In this passage we find Jesus on the go, and "people brought to Him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged Him to lay His hand on him." These people had already heard the Good News that Jesus was preaching.

In response, they reached out to a man who literally could not hear and brought him close to Jesus so that he could receive the Good News, too. This is true service and hospitality at its finest.

Jesus responds immediately with a miraculous healing. He blessed those whose service and hospitality had made this encounter possible, confirming their faith to such an extent that they could not stop themselves from proclaiming the wonder they had witnessed.

This week, let's challenge ourselves to step out of our comfort zone to reach out to someone who needs to hear the Good News of Jesus. We may just find ourselves astonished at what miracles He accomplishes!

Taken from the Catholic Steward 9-2018

Reflexión de las lecturas

Las lecturas de hoy ofrecen bellas ilustraciones de dos de los "Cuatro pilares de la corresponsabilidad parroquial": la hospitalidad y el servicio, y la alegría que puede traer una vida para otros.

Nuestra segunda lectura, de la carta de Santiago, enseña que todos son igualmente dignos de nuestra hospitalidad. Debemos dar la bienvenida y servir a todos los que caminan por las puertas de nuestra iglesia, extendiendo calidez y un saludo digno a todos. La persona que llega tarde a la Misa, que no está vestida según nuestros estándares personales, puede ser justamente la persona que más necesita el amor de Cristo. A veces podemos ofrecer ese amor simplemente con una sonrisa y ofrecernos a sentarnos junto a nosotros en "nuestro" banco.

La lectura del Evangelio de Marcos demuestra la conexión entre la hospitalidad y el servicio. En este pasaje encontramos a Jesús en el camino, y "la gente le trajo a un sordo que tenía un impedimento del habla y le suplicaron que le impusiera la mano". Esta gente ya había escuchado las Buenas Nuevas que Jesús estaba predicando.

En respuesta, se acercaron a un hombre que literalmente no podía oír y lo acercaron a Jesús para que también pudiera recibir las Buenas Nuevas. Este es un verdadero servicio y hospitalidad en su máxima expresión.

Jesús responde de inmediato con una curación milagrosa. Él bendijo a aquellos cuyo servicio y hospitalidad habían hecho posible este encuentro, confirmando su fe a tal punto que no pudieron evitar proclamar la maravilla que habían presenciado.

Esta semana, desafiémonos a salir de nuestra zona de confort para acercarnos a alguien que necesita escuchar las Buenas Nuevas de Jesús. ¡Tal vez nos sorprendamos de los milagros que Él logra!

Looking for a Host Family

Hi, my name is Anton Weidner and I am currently a full time student at a John Paul the Great Catholic University. I am reaching out to you because I have found myself in need, and would like to reach out to my fellow Catholics for assistance. Being a part of Net Ministries for a year (National Evangelization Teams), I learned of the amazing generosity of my brothers and sisters in Christ all across the country. As I was hosted then, I am asking for a family to possibly house me now. From Sept. 20th - March of 2019. Thank you for taking the time to read this and God bless

Please Contact Georgiana or Robert in the Parish office for more information or to be connected to Anton.
