Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

Sometimes the Sunday readings bring peace and consolation. Other times they come as a swift kick in the pants. Today's readings definitely fall in the latter category.

In the Gospel from St. Mark, Jesus begins to instruct the Apostles in what was ahead for Him – and for them. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." In Peter's worldly way of thinking, Jesus should not have to suffer — and for that matter, neither should Peter.

But, rebuking Peter strongly, Jesus indicates He meant exactly what He said earlier. What's more, He was inviting Peter, and all of us, to join him in this way of life that is costly and self-sacrificing.

These readings make it clear that faith and love are not alive in us until they are demonstrated through service to others for the sake of the Gospel. Service of any kind will involve some self-denial. But when I embrace this way of life, I have the joy of knowing my faith and love are real. By laying down my life for Him, I gain a life that is really worth living.

Taken from the Catholic Steward 9-2018

Reflection Question:

How have I demonstrated my service to others for the sake of the Gospel?

How am I being a good steward using the gift/talents God has given me?

Why? Isn't Jesus all about love? Of course He is. He is love. And Jesus shows us by His example that real love requires toughness as much as tenderness.

Our second reading teaches that real faith in Him is displayed through service or "works." In fact, this passage goes so far as to state that "faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

Jesús no debería tener que sufrir, y para el caso, tampoco debería Peter.

Pero, repreniéndolo fuertemente, Jesús indica que quiso decir exactamente lo que dijo antes. Además, estaba invitando a Peter, y a todos nosotros, a unirse a él en esta forma de vida que es costosa y abnegada.

¿Por qué? ¿No es Jesús todo sobre el amor? Claro que lo es. Él es amor. Y Jesús nos muestra con su ejemplo que el amor real requiere dureza tanto como ternura.

Nuestra segunda lectura enseña que la verdadera fe en Él se muestra a través del servicio o "obras". De hecho, este pasaje llega a afirmar que "la fe en sí misma, si no tiene obras, está muerta".

Estas lecturas dejan en claro que la fe y el amor no están vivos en nosotros hasta que se demuestren mediante el servicio a los demás por el bien del Evangelio. El servicio de cualquier tipo implicará un poco de abnegación. Pero cuando abracé esta forma de vida, tengo la alegría de saber que mi fe y amor son reales. Al sacrificar mi vida por Él, gano una vida que realmente vale la pena vivir.

Preguntas de reflexión:

¿Cómo he demostrado mi servicio a los demás por el bien del Evangelio?

¿Cómo estoy siendo un buen administrador usando los dones / talentos que Dios me ha dado?

Reflexión de las lectura

Algunas veces las lecturas del domingo traen paz y consuelo. Otras veces vienen como una patada rápida en los pantalones. Las lecturas de hoy definitivamente caen en la última categoría.

En el Evangelio de San Marcos, Jesús comienza a instruir a los Apóstoles en lo que le esperaba, y para ellos. "El que quiera venir en pos de mí, niéguese a sí mismo, tome su cruz y síganme. Porque quien quiera salvar su vida la perderá, pero quien pierda su vida por mi causa y la del evangelio, la salvará ". En la forma de pensar mundana de Pedro,

Looking for a Host Family

Hi, my name is Anton Weidner and I am currently a full time student at a John Paul the Great Catholic University. I am reaching out to you because I have found myself in need, and would like to reach out to my fellow Catholics for assistance. Being a part of Net Ministries for a year (National Evangelization Teams), I learned of the amazing generosity of my brothers and sisters in Christ all across the country. As I was hosted then, I am asking for a family to possibly house me now. From Sept. 20th - March of 2019. Thank you for taking the time to read this and God bless

Please Contact Georgiana or Robert in the Parish office for more information or to be connected to Anton.
