Stewardship - is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

This week's readings teach us that living as Christian stewards requires us to swim against the tide of our "me-first" culture and stake out a path for our lives that may be different from that of our neighbors, friends or co-workers.

Jesus illustrates in today's Gospel. "Taking a child, He placed it in their midst, and putting His arms around it, He said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

In this context, Christ is speaking not only of youngsters, but all "little ones," those who are vulnerable or needy in any way — through poverty, physical or mental illness, advanced age, difficult family situations — the brothers and sisters St. Teresa of Calcutta would call "Jesus in distressing disguise."

They are all around us if we open our eyes. Like Jesus, we can put our arms around the little ones in our world and channel some of our energy, ambition and talent towards them.

Giving the best of ourselves to these brothers and sisters may be a little messy at times. It may put us in situations that are far outside our comfort zones. Maybe our colleagues and neighbors will not understand our actions. But in reaching out to little ones in Jesus' name, it is Jesus Himself we are touching. And that is a most privileged way of life.

This week, ask the Lord for the wisdom to see the little ones (those in need) in your neighborhood, community, or this parish and to show you concretely how you can reach out to them. Take at least one step. You will be stepping closer to Jesus Christ Himself.

How can I help those in need around me?

Be the servant of all

quien me envió "".

En este contexto, Cristo está hablando no solo de jóvenes, sino de todos los "pequeños", aquellos que son vulnerables o necesitados de alguna manera - a través de la pobreza, enfermedades físicas o mentales, edad avanzada, situaciones familiares difíciles - los hermanos y hermanas Santa Teresa de Calcuta llamaría a "Jesús disfrazado".

Están a nuestro alrededor si abrimos nuestros ojos. Al igual que Jesús, podemos abrazar a los pequeños de nuestro mundo y canalizar parte de nuestra energía, ambición y talento hacia ellos. Dar lo mejor de nosotros mismos a estos hermanos y hermanas puede ser un poco desordenado a veces. Nos puede poner en situaciones que están muy lejos de nuestras zonas de confort. Quizás nuestros colegas y vecinos no comprendan nuestras acciones. Pero al acercarnos a los pequeños en el nombre de Jesús, es a Jesús a quien estamos tocando. Y esa es una forma de vida más privilegiada.

Esta semana, solicite al Señor la sabiduría para ver a los pequeños en su vecindario, comunidad o parroquia y para mostrarle concretamente cómo puede comunicarse con ellos. Toma al menos un paso. Usted se acercará más a Jesucristo mismo.

¿Como puedo ayudar a los mas necesitados a mi alrededor?

Reflexión de las lecturas

Las lecturas de esta semana nos enseñan que vivir como administradores cristianos requiere nadar contra la marea de nuestra cultura de "yo primero" y marcar un camino para nuestras vidas que puede ser diferente al de nuestros vecinos, amigos o compañeros de trabajo.

Jesús lo ilustra en el Evangelio de hoy. "Tomando un niño, lo colocó en medio de ellos, y abrazándolo, les dijo: 'El que reciba un hijo como este en mi nombre, me recibe, y el que me recibe, no recibe a mí sino al ha
