Stewardship – is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Sunday Reading Reflection:

In the eyes of the world, particularly in biblical times when there was no life insurance or Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent on others to take care of them. They each found themselves in desperate situations — one in the midst of famine with a child for which to care, and the other clearly impoverished. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them from those around them. From where did this strength come?

It came from knowing who they are, and Whose they are. These women must have known their security would not come from a good life insurance policy or connections to someone with a hidden storehouse of flour.

No, their security came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God and from putting their faith in Him. They had no need to panic in the midst of natural disaster or cling desperately to their menial resources. Their faith in God set them free to trust Him when all seemed hopeless. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions. Their faith allowed them to be brave and generous, to think of others despite their own trials.

These women saw themselves as stewards, not owners, of the resources God gave them, regardless of how much or how little they had. And acting as stewards made them gracious, generous and mighty indeed.

Reflection Question:
Do I put my faith in God?

Do I trust that God will provide all I need?

Do I give back to God out of my first fruits?

Vino de saber quiénes son y de quiénes son. Estas mujeres deben haber sabido que su seguridad no provendría de una buena póliza de seguro de vida o conexiones con alguien con un almacén de harina oculto.

No, su seguridad vino de saber que eran hijas del Dios Altísimo y de poner su fe en Él. No tenían necesidad de entrar en pánico en medio de un desastre natural o aferrarse desesperadamente a sus escasos recursos. Su fe en Dios los liberó para confiar en Él cuando todos parecían desesperados. Su fe los mantuvo separados de las posesiones materiales. Su fe les permitió ser valientes y generosos, pensar en los demás a pesar de sus propias pruebas.

Estas mujeres se vieron a sí mismas como administradoras, no como dueñas, de los recursos que Dios les dio, sin importar cuán tampoco o mucho tuvieran. Y a actuar como mayordomos los hizo generosos, generosos y poderosos.

Reflexión:
¿Pongo mi fe en Dios?

¿Confío en que Dios proporcionará todo lo que necesito?

¿Le devuelvo a Dios mis primeros frutos?

Reflexión de las lectura

A los ojos del mundo, particularmente en tiempos bíblicos cuando no había seguro de vida o seguridad social, estas viudas eran débiles y dependían de otras para que las cuidaran. Cada uno de ellos se encontró en situaciones desesperadas: uno en medio de la hambruna con un niño por el cual cuidar y el otro claramente empobrecido. Sin embargo, cada uno demostró fuerza y generosidad que los distinguió de los que los rodeaban. ¿De dónde viene esta fuerza?
